

LEBANON COUNTY
Commission for Women

Hall of Fame Nomination

PURPOSE

The Women's Hall of Fame annually recognizes women who have made significant contributions to Lebanon County through their careers or volunteer efforts and who have served as role models for others.

NOMINATION GUIDELINES

- Nominees should live or work in Lebanon County or have played a significant role in a project that benefited the Lebanon Valley or be recognized as unsung heroes who have made a positive difference in others' lives.
- Nominees may be living or deceased.
- Previous inductees are not eligible for nomination. Former Commission for Women members may be nominated only after two years have passed since leaving the Commission.

The selection committee may assign nominees to a different category than suggested, based on the information received. Nominations are due by October 31 for consideration for next year's event. Nominations not selected are resubmitted the following year. A complete list of past inductees, commission members, examples of successful nominations, selection rubric as well as other information are available online at: Lebanon County PA - Hall of Fame and About the Commission | Lebanon County Commission for Women.

A fillable nomination form can be completed online at: Women's Hall of Fame | Lebanon County Commission for Women. Word format is also available by emailing the lebcohalloffame@gmail.com.

SELECTION PROCESS

The committee evaluates each nomination using a published scoring rubric, available on the Hall of Fame webpage. When preparing the nomination, address each criterion as it relates to the nominee's significant impact on Lebanon County and/or the Lebanon Valley.

Please be concise and answer: who, what, where, when, why, and how. Nominations may be sent back for revision if more information is needed.
