SUMMARY REPORT

COMMISSION FOR WOMEN
YEAR IN REVIEW - 2022

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

Dear Friends,

The Lebanon County Commission for Women came, saw, and conquered 2022! We began the year hosting our monthly meetings via zoom, and we ended the year hosting a gathering introducing a younger generation to the commission. In 2022, we saw the ease of the COVID-19 pandemic; the year was full of hills and valleys, and the ladies of the commission worked hard to help the community overcome the setbacks that resulted from the pandemic and look and move forward to a bright future.

The ladies of the Commission supported the Girls on the Run, which had a full slate of teams. The Glass Slipper was a great success this year as well as this was our first solo production as a commission. Liz Judd miraculously was able to put the Glass Slipper Project together. We had a phenomenal fashion show with twelve participants and the Master of ceremonies was Laurie Bowersox.

For Women's History Month, we did a Call to the Community through social media for everyone to wear purple in celebration of the International Women's Day. In honor of Women's History Month, we also had our 12th Annual Hall of Fame Luncheon. It was a wonderful and uplifting experience. Also, Ali Perrotto presented at the Women's Club in April representing the Commission for Women discussing our services for the community.

One of the most exciting developments in 2022, was the creation of the Girls Empowerment Scholarship. Two of our commission members, Mary Banda and Amanda Guzman, worked together to develop the scholarship. The scholarship will provide $1000 for three deserving young ladies that have overcome difficulties in their life, and are working towards furthering their education.

2022 was an exciting year through which the Commission for Women was able to demonstrate resiliency through our work to return to our pre-covid functioning. We added nine new members in 2022. These remarkable women immediately made a tremendous impact, and we are excited about the future of the Lebanon County Commission for Women.

Warmly,
Amanda Davis-Buie

COMMISSION HAPPENINGS

Glass Slipper Dress Sale

For 2022, we were back in person for the Glass Slipper project.

Hosted at the Lebanon Valley Mall, the Glass Slipper project raised money through the sale of 143 dresses, and students came from 13 different schools attended to buy dresses.

Hall of Fame Luncheon

The Hall of Fame Luncheon was the commission's first in-person event post COVID-19 shut down. We hosted 170 guests for the celebration of 11 magnificent women in the categories of arts, athletics, community, education, healthcare, healthy lifestyles, leadership, military, and trailblazer. We also honored our first mentee of our Mentor program with a $500 scholarship.

Community Engagement

Commission members continue to support Girls on the Run through sponsorship and volunteering. The Commission for Women was invited to participate in the Salvation Army Bell Ringing Campaign again this year as well.

Social Engagement

Our social media is used as a platform to highlight women's triumphs and issues, hidden heroes, spreading information about self-love, self-care, and information that motivates, inspires, and educates.
